

Contents

- I. Homo Sacer
- II. A Priori identification of chaos factors
- III. The major disruption milestones leading to trivialization of fear
- IV. Philosophical reflection on consideration

Homo Sacer

Axis of reflection on the factors and outlines the conditions under which we live in today's world of globalization in the context of the guidelines regardless of latitudes and longitudes habited.

Homo Sacer

Questioning by Giorgio Agamben since the mid-90s, part of the realization that death, not murder setting, it still result in disproportionate violence to the means of self-defense of those who suffer.

Homo Sacer

Basic concepts - While philosopher Agamben ponders the question of such issue, and anchors of thought Heggel⁽¹⁾ or Hanna Arendt⁽²⁾, the constellation of those who constitute the matrix of the diagnostic analysis of situations that observed in most multiple geographies of the Planet:

Sovereign power, State of exception,
Concentration camp, Naked life , Homo Sacer⁽³⁾

(1) The End of History

(2) The Banality of Evil

(3) "He who can be killed without his death configure murder", cf. Jacinto Rego de Almeida, Crónica in Jornal de Letras, Artes e Ideias, ano XXXIII, nº 1126, Portugal 2013

A Priori identification of chaos factors

Neoliberal winds blown from their starting configuration by Chicago Academy

End of the Cold War vs. Dissemination of the Terrorism as political and religious weapon

Struggle among State and non-State

A Priori identification of chaos factors

Increment of people without conditions of integration at societies in which they live
(people without a flag)

Deprived of ammunition communities concerning identity and universality

The major disruption milestones leading to trivialization of fear

1994

Outbreak of mass privatization, and Russia played most of human history, with the collapse of the strategic sectors of economic activity planned by the West and performed by Russian bureaucrats, with millions of people pushed into extreme poverty and universality.

The major disruption milestones leading to trivialization of fear

2001

Outbreak of terrorism from the destruction of the Twin Towers, with the successive landmarks, the invasion of Iraq, the invasion of Afghanistan, the War of Islam and the increasing conception ubiquitous based on contrasts of belief as pretexts for wars and ownership of resources available in the soil of weathered attacks.

The major disruption milestones leading to trivialization of fear

2008

Outbreak of the global economic crisis based on the supremacy of the vector of the financial markets and the economic strength of the corresponding impunity of financial conglomerates before the sovereignty of states.

The major disruption milestones leading to trivialization of fear

Guantanamo as a paradigm

Animalization the dangers of living with the growing violence of sovereign power in the margins that to became rarefied the rule of law and public space refer to Deleuze's reflection on the relationship between man and wild animal and the very work of Agamben entitled "Open: man and animal" (2002).

Philosophical reflection on consideration

"A Europe, in a changing world, without a sustainable demographic model, experience or capacity for risk and innovation, loses power to influence each passing day."

Philosophical reflection on consideration

In such a context:

"How can we prevent democratic states legitimize criminal practices and exceptional moments?"

In other words

"How to resist the tendency for the end of human time just taking shape on the horizon?"